Dear Al:

Thanks for your recent letter concerning [redacted]

[redacted] Upon receipt of your earlier letter of 4 April 1949, an investigation was initiated to determine the possibility of using him in some manner. To date, however, because of the present disturbed conditions and attendant shifting of personnel in [redacted] we have been unable to contact [redacted]

Information presently available indicates that it will be necessary to have some discussions with [redacted] to determine how his possible values might best be utilized. We shall continue to attempt to get in touch with him, and shall appreciate any further information which you may receive regarding his current locations and plans.

Again with thanks for your interest and with best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,
